DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (If known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

A mid-19th century frame house with an unusual form for this area, the house stands amid corn and tobacco fields. It is unoccupied but appears to be in fair condition. The house is marked on the 1878 county map as owned by A. Owens. The Owens family still owns most of the land around it. Owens

The house has two stories under a square hipped roof. Two large brick chimneys pierce the roof near the center on the north-south axis. The plan is almost square, with four bays on the north and south elevations, two wider bays on the east and west. The windows are all 6/6 pane openings with louvered shutters. The main entrance is on the north elevation in one of the two center bays. The door is framed by top and side lights and covered by a shed canopy of recent construction. The exterior walls have been covered with asbestos shingle and the roof is sheathed with metal. The roof is edged with a deep boxed cornice. The corners of the house are finished with vertical boards molded at the tops to resemble pilasters.

The house stands on a rise and is visible from a distance along Bay Front Road and Little Road.
